The conditions, however, under which the bead of the administration would inference the Gubernatorial candidate were, it was said, as follows.

Senigtor Charles R. Fauikner must straighten out the Congressional nominations muddle in such a manner as to show conclusively that the State party is in line with National politics.

Mr. Browster said he was convinced that the President would take the opportunity of declaring himself in favor of the State ticket. This statement made almost immediately after Mr. Brewster's conversation with Senator Hill this forenon, lends color to the eport that the President is coming out atforded in favor of the State ticket.

Hugh J. Grant hurried into Democratic-State Headquarters shortly before Loon. He was asked the occasion of his visit, but declined to say what he wanted to see Mr. Hill about.

'I have no engagement with the Senator,' he said, 'so cannot say whether he will receive me."

The Tammany candidate for Mayor, however, made his way at once to Mr. Hill's room and was admitted without delay.

The put of six favorites passed the wire first during backs have been able, through a quickly made up phalanx of interferers, to regain almost the length of the punt, and then, if three downs did not advance the ball very far, a kick down the field resulted in much more advantage than a punt in return for the first kick would have yielded.

RECEIVER GRANT SET RIGHT.

Not Censured by Justice Barrett. as Reported by Certain Papers. John M. Bowers, counsel for Hugh J. Grant, receiver of the defunct St. Nicholas Bank, appeared before Justice Barrett, in Suoreme Court, Chambers, today and moved to add to the order issued by His Honor last week another "Guardian Angel" Chetwood Claims page, authorizing Mr. Grant to advertise and require all creditors to file their and require all creditors to file their claims or be shut out.

After making the formal motion, Mr. Bowers took occasion to compliment Mr. Grant on his administration of the affairs of the bank, and to censure certain newspapers, which, he claimed, had in their headlines given an altogether wrong impression of Justice Barrett's order and made it appear that the Justice had criticised Mr. Grant.

Lawyer F. J. Mather, counsel for the St. Nicholas Bank, who appeared in court with Mr. Bowers, said that an afternoon paper had stated, the day Mr. Howers made the motion for the order allowing the receiver to pay an additional 29 per cent. dividend, that he had opposed the motion.

"This statement was not true," said Mr. Mather, "and if the press reports of the proceedings of this court are to be so incorrect it seems to me the reports should be vised."

Justice Barrett granted Mr. Bowers's motion, and in doing so stated that there had been nothing in his order reflecting on Mr. Grant's administration of the bank's affairs, and said he ithought everybody concerned was satisfied with his conduct of the receivership.
